THE HERITAGE
LIBERTY HIGH SCHOOL
VOLUME VII

To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven . . . A time to love and a time to hate; a time of war and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3: 1,8.

The sounds of '70-'71 included the familiar sounds of slamming lockers, laughing students, clicking typewriters, and shuffling feet mingled with assemblies, football games, the Miss LHS Contest, and the Senior Play.

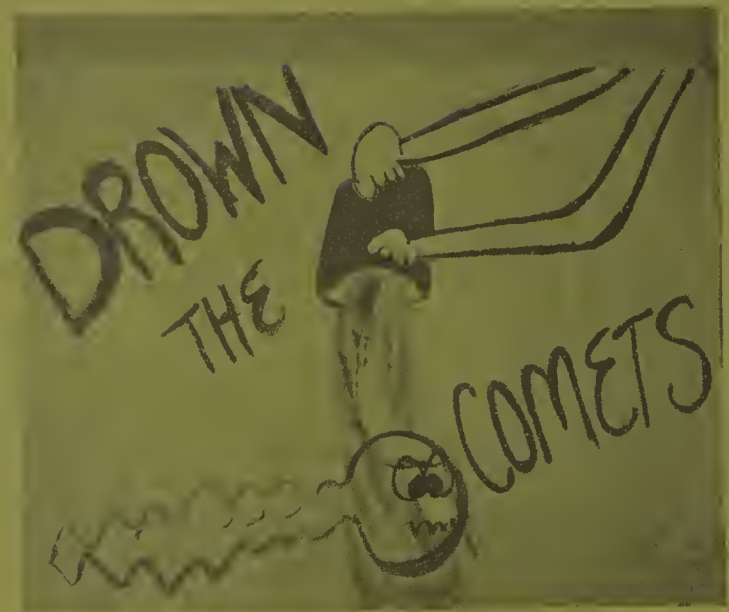

The '70 sounds were invaded with news flashes concerning the "downfall" of the L.H.S. gym and inspectors with clipboards and yardsticks. Missing were the thump and swish of basketballs and the clop, clop of the track team running laps. The entire student body was affected by the lack of sock hops after games, a home court for basketball and wrestling, and most of all — a place for the Ring Dance and the Junior-Senior Prom.

And so another year has passed — capturing memories of youth, hope, and vivacious spirit which will remain with the student.

"Late for school again?" . . . "Is this call long distance?" . . . "Mrs. Nichols, where did I put that announcement?" . . . "Since we haven't had a fire drill," . . . "Mr. Lee, call the office. Mr. Lee." . . . "Anyone see Mr. Frazier on the gym roof?" . . . All this and much more hit the students as they paraded past the office desk with their joys and sorrows. Among the new faces seen this year was Mr. Thompson, who joined Mr. Lee and his staff as an assistant principal and worked in accord with Mrs. Perrow and the administration to try to form a mutual understanding between the faculty and students.

"I ain't gonna talk to that there boy no more . . . Oh, HELLO Mrs. Gordon. As I was saying, I'm going to cut off all further communication with that dreadful human being" . . . Such are the many embarrassing phrases that those grammar conscious men and women of the speaking world always manage to hear. Always striving to improve the spoken word of their students, the English teachers also brought the literary heritage of novels and short stories, into the perspective of their students.

After five years of English, students are able to quote such phrases as, "The evil that men do lives after them; the good is oft interred with their bones" . . . "Romeo, Romeo, where art thou Romeo?" . . . "Good fences made good neighbors!" . . . "To be or not to be. That is the question!" . . . along with the philosophies of Thoreau, Emerson, and Frost. The research papers, compositions, and essays that create inevitable headaches in every student's life prove that the English curriculum at Liberty is an excellent program.

Another test? That's the fourth one this week . . . $x^2 + y^2 = u^2$, z^2 maybe . . . Pythagoras was a dirty old man . . . A complex number is the figure that comes after $2 + 2$. . . These are just a few of the many insane ideas that pop into the minds of Math students, whether they are taking Algebra I or Advanced Math. These same idiotic students are the ones that stay up into the wee hours of the morning working on Matharama projects and the ones who bring the many Math honors to Liberty. These whiz kids will be the future mathematical leaders of tomorrow. With the fundamental knowledge they acquire in Math 9, Algebra I, Geometry, Algebra II and on through Trigonometry and Advanced Math. It's a long road from beginning to end

Faced with problems concerning the why's of the past and predictions for the future, the History Department encouraged an intensive study that ranged from digging up skeletons in World History to proposing amendments in government.

Within the various subjects offered, History, American History, World Geography, Civics, U. S. History and Government, unusual projects were attempted to increase student interest, class discussion, and impress upon students the importance of knowing the origin of our culture from legends, customs and traditions. This year the government students studied income tax forms, Communism and our changing democracy.

Science approaches today's problems

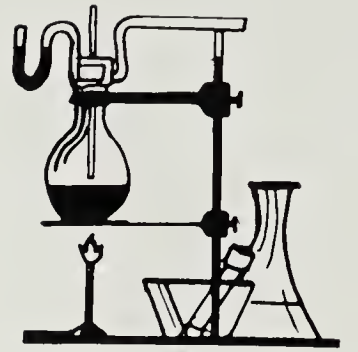

Happiness is learning that you are dissecting a female frog right before lunch or learning that a mole is not necessarily a furry brown animal or is it learning that your physics lab reports are due the same day as your English term paper — which happens to coincide with the day after tomorrow!

Actually, happiness is all of these things to Liberty High students involved in any of the sciences offered. Between labs, groans, shattering glass, and woozy stomachs, students become acquainted with basic scientific principles through term papers, science projects, and endless hours of study.

Liberty's Science Department, thanks to industrious students and demanding teachers, has made the rest of the state aware of its existence, especially through the famed Science Fair.

Reflecting the trend toward an ever increasing interest in modern languages, LHS students this year were offered an introduction to German. This class was taught by Mr. Sowell and held in the mornings before school.

A better understanding and appreciation of foreign languages was encouraged with a study of the history, music, art, and literature of the related country. Use of tape recorders, overhead projectors, and the language laboratory aided students in proper enunciation and comprehension.

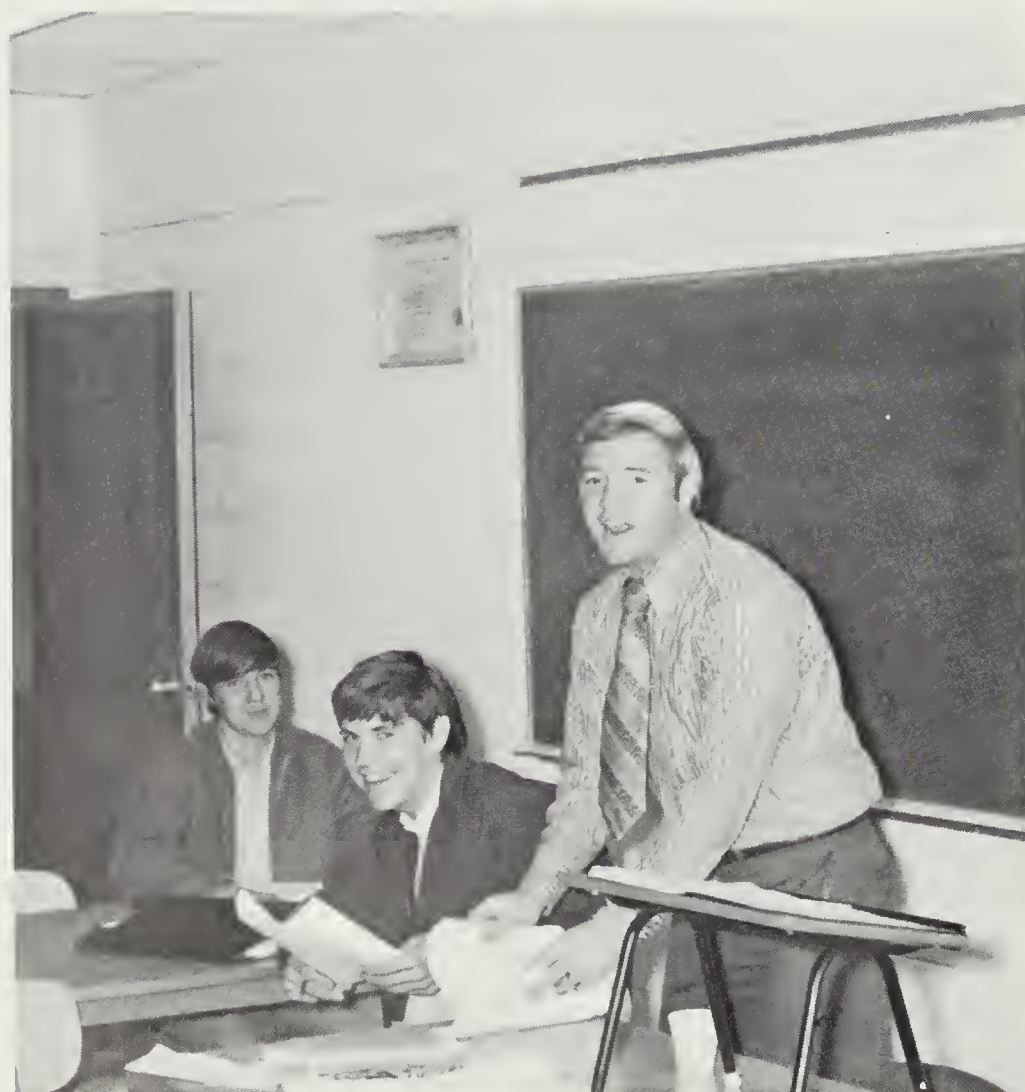

Magazines and books in Spanish and French offered students another channel to get a feeling of the "second country."

Chorus

Is FACE just something that gets slapped with makeup and perfume? Is oil stuff that you put into your car to keep it running? Is apron just something to tie around you waist? If you answer these questions in the affirmative, then you are obviously not a music, art or drama student.

These students are fortunate to be able to appreciate operas, Broadway, concerts and classical and modern art. The band and chorus members even got to participate in school assemblies. The band was always there to perform at halftime during home football games, also.

The Music, Art and Dramatics Departments, under the direction of skilled teachers, strive to instill a want in their students to lose their inhibition while doing their "thing." Attention teachers: Maybe that boy who would never quit drawing on your desks may someday become a modern-day Rembrandt.

"But how do you know you don't like artichoke salad? I have never made it before!" . . . "Oh no! That wasn't scratch paper you threw away; it was my mechanical drawing project!" . . . "Hey, I sold that bowl I made in shop for four bucks." . . . Students quickly learned that practice is a necessary part of any vocational skill and gradually the hard work began to pay off.

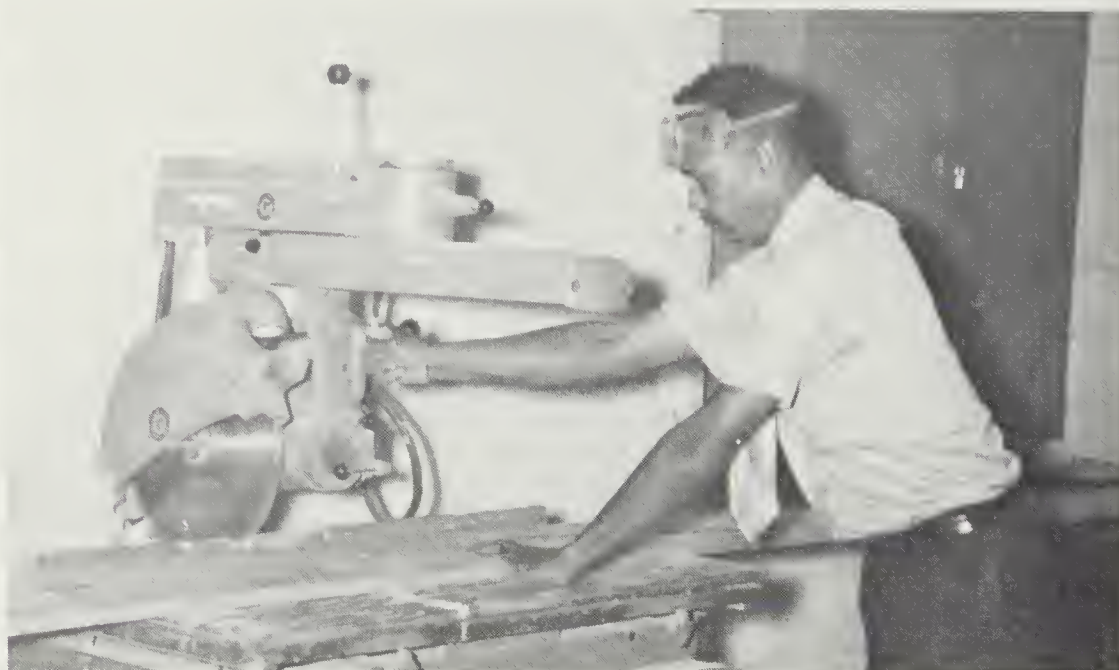

In the classroom, vocational students acquired technical knowledge, experience, and supervised practice of home economics, mechanical drawing, electronics, shop, agriculture, and business procedures. This allowed both D.E. and other students a headstart in job training. It also prepared them for practical applications of these skills in their own homes.

What would happen if all of our personnel went on strike? Inconceivable? Try throwing your books on a desk and being unable to see for the next five minutes until the dust settled . . . Or wading to class through balled-up paper, broken pencils, discarded candy wrappers, and dirt. (One-way traffic is bad enough without last week's trash.) . . . Or looking for the "S" encyclopedia and finding it across the room under science fiction . . . Or standing in line with 990 other pale, emcipated, starving students waiting for a lunch that will never come . . . Or deliriously walking around school with a fever of 105° because no one is supervising the infirmary (maybe the nurses are already on strike) . . . Or getting ready to mail your SAT registration in on the day before the penalty date and finding no pens . . .

Things would be pretty hectic around here, to say the least, without our dependable personnel. In addition to their services, there are also the cheery smiles that greet you in the halls or cafeterias, making you feel that maybe this isn't quite the cold, academic institution you thought it was after all.

"Where have all the boys gone, long time passing? Gone to practice everyone. When will they ever learn?" . . . "He's going, going, gone — out of bounds." . . . "Give me an inch and I'll take a mile." . . . Such were the feelings of the varsity football team as they faced some of the toughest football teams in the district.

Lacking in size but not in spirit, the Minutemen started the '70 season with a heartbreaking and still controversial defeat against the Mountaineers of Clifton Forge. The Minutemen, with the score 18 to 16, seemed to be rolling to victory but in the last second of playing time, a pass by the Mountaineers resulted in a defeat for Liberty.

Such was the luck of the team as they played through the season unspoiled by victory, yet unhampered by disappointment. The playing strategy rested on the shoulders of Bill Coleman and Tim Frazier, co-captains.

During the game at Allegany that "Impossible Dream" became the "Bridge Over Troubled Waters" as those daring Minutemen victoriously trounced the Colts with a final score of 14 to 6.

With this elated triumph, the team tackled Stanton River in the all important Shrine Game and ended the season with a 27 to 14 victory over their county rival. In this game alone, Bill Coleman's and George Tsoleas' rushing gave the Minutemen over 200 yards on the field. Following the game Larry Roberts was rewarded the Most Valuable Player trophy.

Mac Deacon clears the way for fast running George Tsoleas in an attempt for a first down.

Now that the football season is over, we girls think it's about time we let you boys in on a little secret of ours!

When it comes to football, we girls are probably the most enthusiastic fans — and the most bewildered. Speaking as a member of the weaker sex, I can safely say that the whole time we are jumping up and down and screaming at a game, most of us haven't got the vaguest idea of what is going on. In our eyes, the sport seems to center around a series of gangfights called plays, (I think) over who gets the ball.

Our knowledge of football terminology leaves much to be desired. For example, when the scoreboard reads "1 down, 10 to go", to us that means that one player has been knocked down and only ten are left. When the announcer refers to the word "quarter", we think that he is speaking of what the referee flips to decide which team is to make the kick-off. A fumble is when everyone mournfully says, "Awwwwwww", and foul is an adjective which describes the language of the losing team's coach. Defense is the opposite of offense which is the opposite of defense.

We female fans aren't always entirely mixed-up, however. We all know that the word "touchdown" refers to making points and a tackle occurs when the guy carrying the ball gets squashed. We also know a little about the positions. If someone asked us, "What is a quarterback?" We would probably correctly answer, "Joe Namath!"

Now all you male readers ask, "Why come to the football games at all if you know so little about them?" The reason for our enthusiasm is, I suppose, partly because of the excitement, the sock-hops, and lack of something better to do. What really attracts us about football, however, is not so much the game itself as the people who play it — and WE DO UNDERSTAND THEM!!

Billy Carson runs the ball upfield after catching a punt.

Hey you—watch out for that goal post! Do you ever feel the weight of the whole world is on top of you? That's the way many of the members of the J.V. football team felt when they had the experience of having half of the opposing team on them. Ah, but such is the life of a football player. Under the expert watch of Coach Pachuta, the J.V.'s had a very successful year. First playing Franklin County and on through the season, finishing up with Covington. They won a total of four games. Not only did they win games, they also gained a knowledge of the ins and outs of football which will prove invaluable when they return next year whether they play Varsity or Junior Varsity football or even sit on the sidelines and explain the plays to an unsuspecting female.

Coach Pachuta eyes his defense.

Billy Carson does his thing.

Cheerleaders spark team's success

After the soreness of the first days of practice were over, the J.V. football cheerleaders were ready to coax their team to victory. Although sometimes plans had to be altered and even cancelled to leave time for practice and games, these cheerleaders were ready to sacrifice for their team. Their enthusiasm and spirit helped keep team moral high. The long hours of practice paid off when the cheerleaders cheered at games.

It is easy to tell the J.V. cheerleaders—just look for the brightest happiest faces at L.H.S. This highly respected position also involves a lot of time making posters, helping varsity cheerleaders at football games, and practicing and practicing and more practicing.

Co-captains Phyllis Franklin and Mary K. Harris raise the flag at the Varsity football game.

GARY (PETE) PULLEN

Do you think that boys in short pants and knee socks went out with the Dark Ages? If you saw a boy dressed in this manner would you think him sissy? If the answer to these probing questions is affirmative, you obviously have not had the opportunity to see the Liberty High basketball team in action. Strength, height, and downright good looks are a few of the many characteristics of the squad.

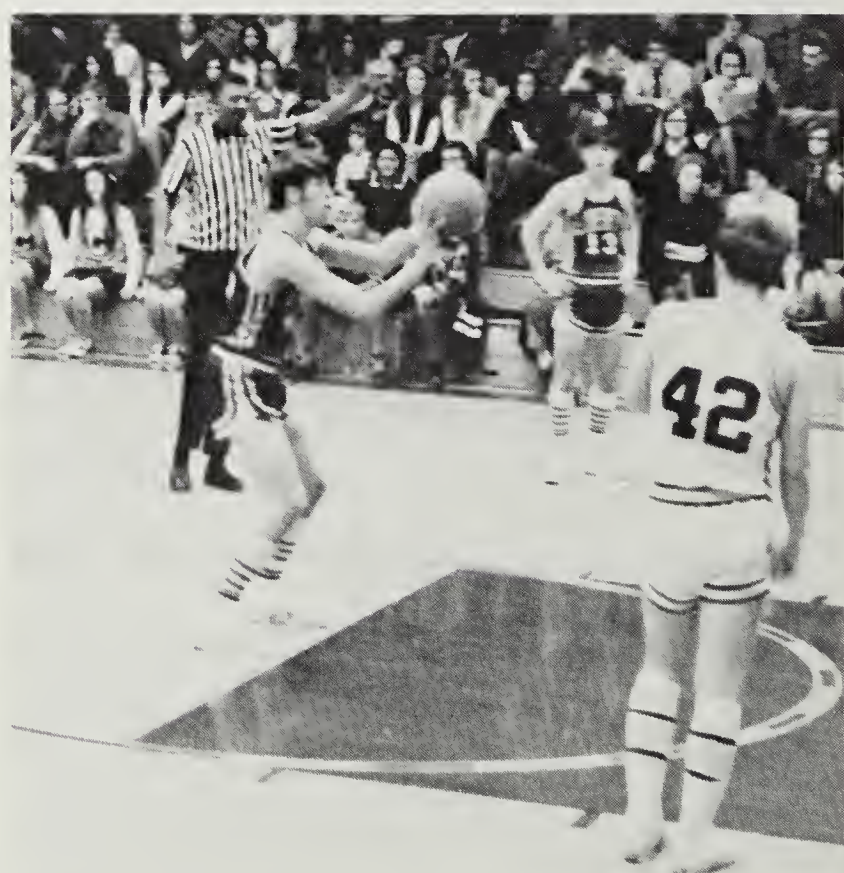

Overcoming seemingly insurmountable hardships, the basketball squad triumphed handicaps such as sub-zero weather, flu, the tougher competition in the AAA District, and of course, the granddaddy of all insurmountable odds — NO GYM!

There's a lot more to being a basketball cheerleader than meets the eye. It's common knowledge that a cheerleader must be neat, attractive, and perpetually peppy. However, have you tried to pick up your skirt at the cleaners 5 minutes after the store closed, or staying after school all week when a term paper is due, or having to smile when your feet are killing you? Well, it is just a part of the trials and tribulations of these girls. But with the problems also come rewards — like winning a close game, or better still, winning a game the critics said you would lose.

Varsity Cheerleaders give the team a "little" message before the game!

Tournaments

"Hey Paula! . . . Don't just stand there!!!"

Connie Turpin shows her skill from the foul line.

"Support your girls basketball team" was heard by the students at L.H.S. and for a good reason. The Minnettes were an undefeated force. They were up against tough competition but they always came through with shining colors. They had several major scorers and a hard to beat defense. Even without a gym and only a handful of supporters, the Minnettes proved to be one of the top Girls Basketball teams plus bringing in honors for L.H.S.

Gina Jenrette and Nina Camden meet with the officials before the game.

"Hey Gina, did you hear the one about . . .?"

Connie Turpin skillfully dribbles past her opponent.

"You've got to be kidding!!!!!!!!!"

Lyverne Lowry gains control of the ball in a jump-ball situation.

Individualism composes wrestling team

"You can do it if you try, come on Steve, pin that guy" . . . get the takedown . . . we need five more points, Mike . . . shoot the half . . . bridge Tim . . . come on ref, he's pinned . . . call what you see, referee, be consistant . . . stalling on the bottom . . . such were the sounds heard as the LHS grapplers surged to victory.

Led by co-captains, Steve Wilkerson and Pat Johnston, and supported by many enthusiastic fans, the boys completed an AAA season, then continued into District, Regional and State tournaments.

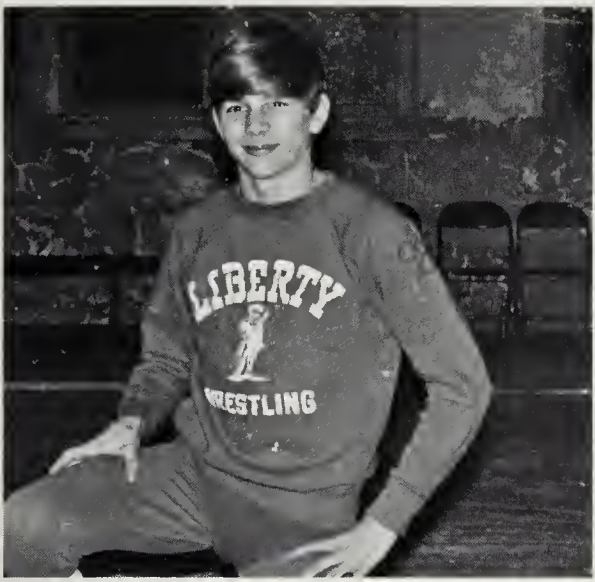

Several events highlighted the season, such as Johnston's 0:23 second pin and Richard Massie and Skip Goodman remaining undefeated in the regular season. One of the most talked about matches was Goodman's win over Boone of Franklin, who was undefeated — until he met Skip.

When things like this happened the matmen began to think that maybe all those long, tiring hours of practice and not eating for days before the match were all worth it.

"The ball goes to first base Delvin — not third!"

Tad Fulks warms up before the game begins.

"Tad, does it take that much concentration????"

Coach Cutler talks to some of the team before a game.

Paul Day shows a content expression as he pitches the ball.

Keith Massie seems determined to send the ball across home plate.

The Liberty baseball team proved themselves capable in the field whether it be in pitching, catching, or outfield. Together these Minutemen formed a winning team full of hardworking and outstanding players. The saying "practice makes perfect" was shown to be true by the unsurmounted Minutemen.

Paul Day attempts to get an opponent out on first base.

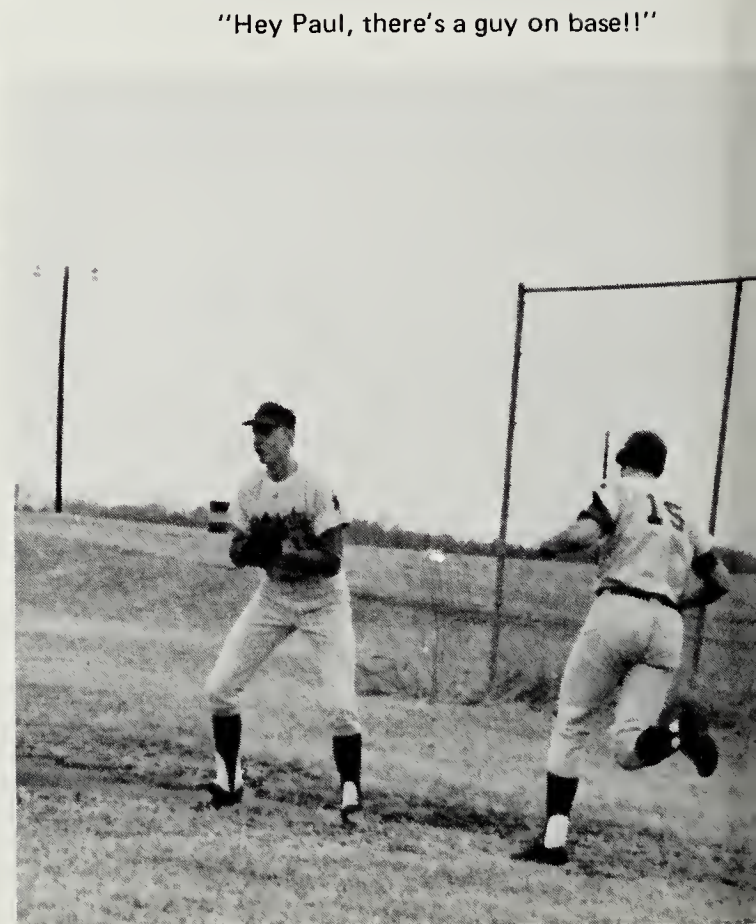

Liberty's outfield "warms up" before a game.

"Where did the ball go, Wesley???"

Outfielder Delvin Tanner carefully watches the infield activities.

"Hey Paul, there's a guy on base!!"

“Come on Tad, one more strike!!!!!!”

Paul Day winds up to fire one across home plate.

John Bell and Jimmy Lyle pass the baton as they practice their exchange for the relay team.

Jimmy Lyle runs the 440 during practice.

George Tsoleas practices coming out of the starting blocks before a meet.

Victor Jackson pushes himself hard during practice.

Ricky Deal shows the strain of a hard day's practice.

When spring approaches it brings with it track. The L.H.S. Minutemen worked with encouragement for fellow track members and a goal in mind. Of course they worked hard in the process of getting in shape — such as running laps, running laps, and running laps. But in the end the work they had done faithfully was shown by their outstanding form and speed.

George Tsoleas and Victor Jackson sprint towards the finish line.

Season proves to be successful

Forrest Miles clears another hurdle en route to the finish line.

Track team members run laps to get in shape for the season.

Bill Coleman attempts to break his own record in the discus.

Jesse Huddleston practices his serve.

Bill Johnson opens his set by returning a serve.

Tommy Cayton sets his form as he prepares to return the ball.

"You can't miss this serve, John."

Robin Roberts attempts to serve the ball to his opponent.

"Tennis anyone??", a familiar slogan for the L.H.S. tennis team. The tennis team zeroed in with determination and spirit. Fundamentals were refreshed, then the mastering of the racket, the ball, and the court. The Minutemen showed excellent form and their dedication was shown throughout the whole season.

GOLF TEAM — Tom Padgett, Jim Stanley, Allan Coffey, Steve Howell, Bernie Dean, and Eddie Putney.

Duffers denote determination

Whack — off it goes — hopefully for another birdie as the returning lettermen, Jim Stanley and Steve Howell, dream about the holes-in-one they almost made.

Practice sessions at the Bedford County Club indicated that the putting Minutemen would have another successful season trying to outdo last year's impressive record of 7-3 and fifth place in the State Tournament. Members of the squad express their thanks to the Bedford County Club and Mr. Shackelford for use of the golf course again this year.

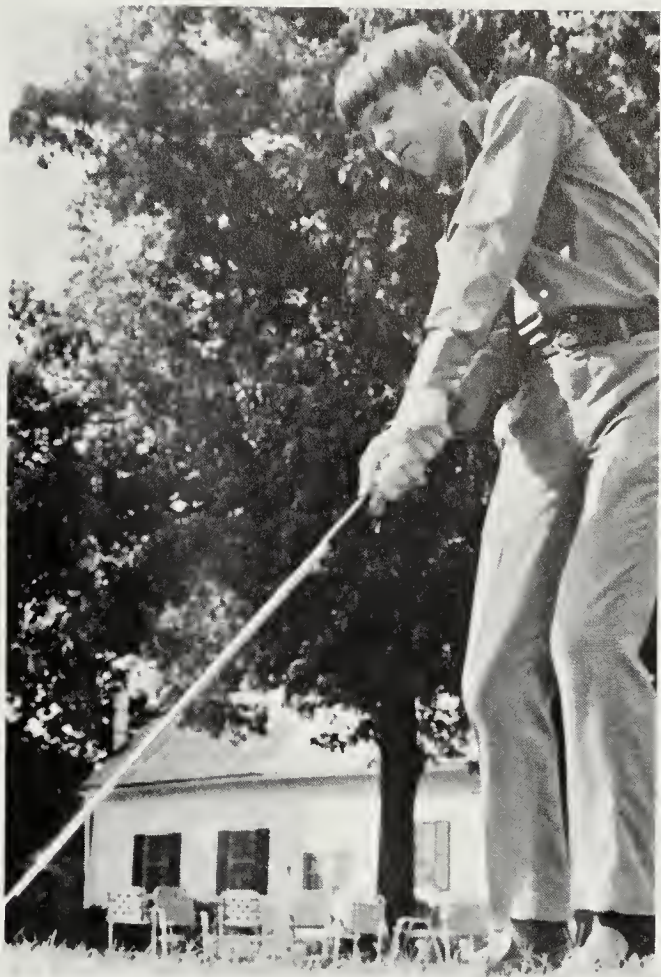

No one ever told me there'd be times like this!

A hole in one! . . . Would you believe in five?

Is this what they mean by a club pro?

LEADERS

SCA governs

The main purpose of the Student Cooperative Association is to decide on school policies over which students have control. Theoretically, all students are members of the S.C.A., although one representative from each homeroom and club are selected to attend meetings and take part in projects which emphasize school spirit and participation in school-sponsored activities. By means of campaigns and elections, the S.C.A. gives each student an opportunity to participate in and understand the bases of a democratic government.

Under the able leadership of President Cathy Synan, the S.C.A. continued its tradition of service to the community and school by taking surveys for the City of Bedford, running the bookstore, helping clean up the parking lot, supplying Christmas trees for the court yards, and sponsoring the "Ugliest Boy Contest."

71 Juniors invade Beta Club

A hush descended upon the audience as the old Beta members mingled among the juniors and seniors of the student body. The hush was broken with soft whispers, sighs of relief, excited gasps, and bursts of laughter as the newly inducted members assembled at the front of the auditorium. This year's inductees numbered 117, a large increase over last year's enrollment.

Invitations to the Beta Club were extended to juniors and seniors who had a B or above average and were carefully screened by the faculty and administration. They were inducted into the club at the candlelight service.

To serve the school and community, Beta members entered a float in the miniature Homecoming Parade, operated the concession stand during a football game, sponsored a contestant for the Miss LHS contest, entered a team for Classroom Kuiz, sent delegates to the State Beta Convention, assisted at the Senior Class Banquet, and served as junior marshals for Baccalaureate and Commencement services.

"And now do you understand?"

Future Teachers illuminate the bright side of teaching

The Future Teachers of America is a club which strives to create an interest in the teaching career and to give its members an insight into the teaching vocation.

The FTA showed the club's appreciation to teachers with a special bulletin board and presented them shiney apples. The FTA sponsored a contestant for the Miss L.H.S. Contest and the "Ugliest Boy" Contest. Plans were made to attend Madison College in the spring.

I'll take MINE on the rocks!!

The Future Business Leaders of America, better known as F.B.L.A., is one of Liberty's leading clubs. Bulletin boards, scrap-book exhibits, contests, public speaking, Mr. & Mrs. F.B.L.A., awards, essays, are a few of the F.B.L.A.'s many projects. They're always on the go whether they be participating in the Regional convention held in Farmville or working to raise money for scholarships which go to outstanding members of their club. A secretarial service is one of their ways of adding to their fund.

Karen Creasy as president, and co-sponsors, Mrs. Zimmerman and Mr. Baldwin, led the club through a successful year.

EDITORS — Frances Sanderson, Mr. Powell (sponsor), Vicki Mann, Jane McGuire. NOT SHOWN — Cynthia Gilmore.

Mr. Webb (co-sponsor) and Frances compare copy for the deadline shipment.

Heritage members wrestle with spelling names and collecting money for annual pictures.

A very smart person once said, "Anyone who works on an annual is completely crazy." Well, after much debate we cannot deny this with any logical reason. Most students hear, "Turn off that T.V. and get to your lessons." We hear, "Put that junk away and do your homework for a change."

There are so many things to remember. All the evenings we stayed, the hours we worked, the money we tried so hard to get, the empty bottles left in Mr. Webb's care, the laughs, headaches, tears, anger, pleas, and deadlines. All these things and at least one hundred more, made the yearbook almost worthwhile.

And so to whom it may concern: Mr. Powell and Mr. Webb, who never got too mad; the editors who never liked anything; the section editors who were always late for deadlines and cried a lot; Janice who begged, borrowed, and stole ads; Delmar for putting up with our whims; the workers who watched the section editors cry, the editors scream, and the sponsors shrug their shoulders; and the photographers who were most uncooperative — is it worth it now?

Heritage Staff conquers "The Battle of the Yearbook"

Members participate in District One-Act

The "show biz" members of the Drama Club had an initiation for new members at the hay ride in November.

The Drama Club has the most comprehensive range of any of its kind. This can be witnessed by seeing any of the performances presented by talented drama apprentices.

Featured at club meetings were a speaker from Roanoke College, selling LHS pins, patomines and scenes from drama class students, and working with the District One Act and Senior Plays.

This year's Christmas play, an annual event, was "Amahl and the Night Visitors" starring Ann Leftwich and David Bowyer. Presented earlier in the year was "Sorry, Wrong Number" starring Sharon Zimmerman.

"Hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil." This old proverb is today and an unspoken ideal for members of the Junior and Senior Tri-Hi-Y Clubs. These girls took several projects upon themselves this year and carried them out. They worked under the motto, "Clean Speech, Clean Sportsmanship, and Clean Scholarship, and Clean Living."

"25 cents per swing," or so they said. One of the Hi-Y projects was sponsoring a car to be beat-up at one of the L.H.S. football games.

The Hi-Y Clubs operated under the objective: "To create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character throughout the home, school, and community." They carried out this objective to the best of their abilities and ended the school year successfully.

No, it's not a shade of black. No, it is not a supersonic aircraft. No, it's not even a new cereal. JETS stands for the Junior Engineering Technologist Society. Understand? Well, for those of you who are still in the dark, Jets is a club for those interested in engineering. They seek to develop the greatest potential of engineering skill among those truly interested in this field.

To be one of the "Jets" set a member must have an average of C or above. Each member had a chance to display this budding talent in the Bedford County Science Fair held March 13.

President Bobby Binger arranged for a number of talented speakers who gave lectures on a variety of subjects.

F.F.A. Seal

The F.F.A. is an intra-curricular activity having its origin and root in a definite part of the school curriculum — Agricultural Education. Among other things, members learned through active participation how to conduct and take part in a public meeting, to speak in public, to buy and sell cooperatively, to solve their own problems, to finance themselves, and to assume civic responsibility. The foundation upon which the Future Farmers of America is built includes leadership and character development, sportsmanship, cooperation, service, thrift, scholarship, improved agriculture, organized recreation, citizenship, and patriotism.

The F.F.A. is 100% American in its ideals and outlook and has no outside affiliation.

Spanish club learns and

Each year of Spanish has 2 representatives on the Spanish Club executive council. These members reported the happenings of club meetings to fellow classmates. Club members used the Spanish they learned in the classroom by playing games and singing songs in Spanish.

The club hosted several guest speakers, including a speaker from Spain who gave a talk on "modern Spain" and showed slides. Along with bakesales, members prepared Mexican dishes for the students to sample.

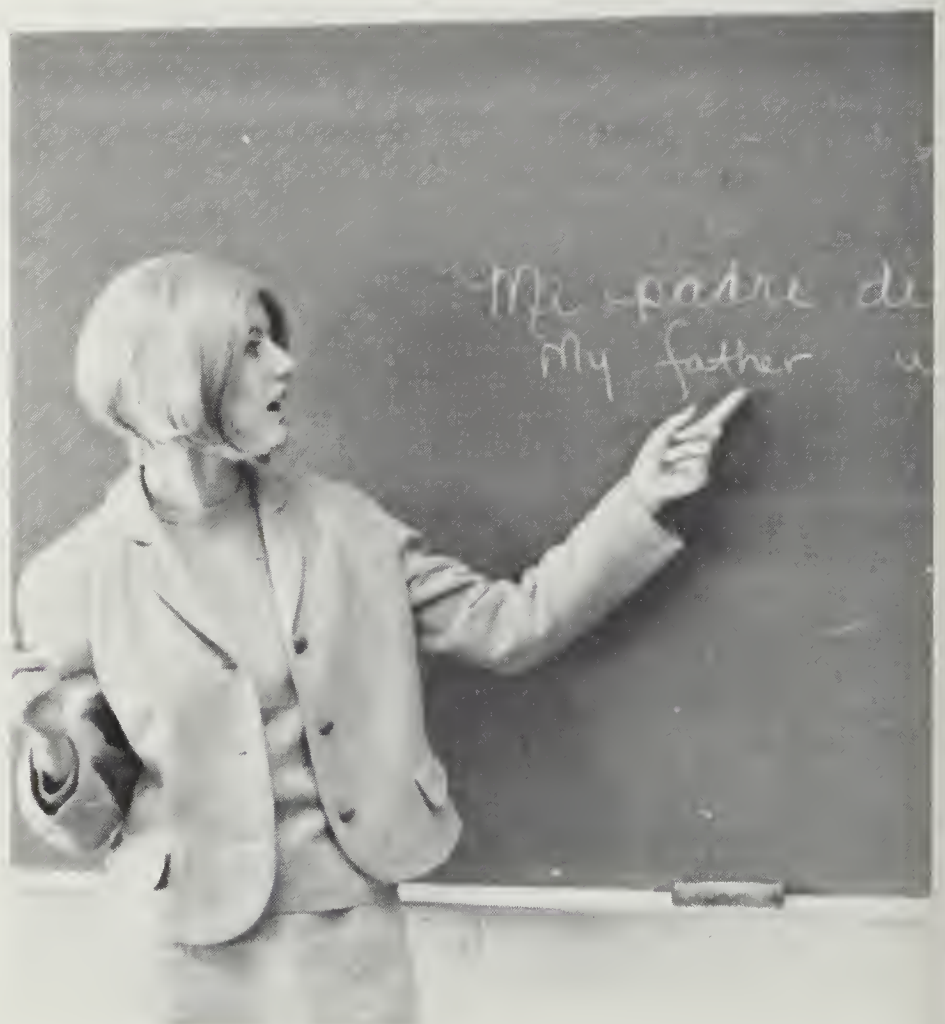

The Spanish Club showed its school spirit in sponsoring Jerry Craig for the "Ugliest Boy" Contest in which he won the "Most Talented" award.

The ways and customs of the French people were brought to life in each meeting of the French Club. Anything from French dancing to exotic pastries could be expected from these enthusiastic members. The year started off with a visit from an "authentic" Frenchman. To show the variety of programs, at one meeting a hilarious skit about a "typical" French classroom was presented. The highlights of the year — a tasty steak dinner on the Peaks — showed that this year was a success.

Romans on Slave Day

Horrified slaves stared at their masters in disbelief when told, "Sing and bow twice to all teachers and put your hair in eight braids with pink and blue ribbons and carry that baby bottle on top of your books all day." This was "Slave Day," a day no one will forget. The diabolical grins revealed the evil thoughts of slaves as they anticipated the day when they would be the masters.

Today we see many establishments that offer services, benefits, or satisfaction that improves appearance, health, comfort, or peace of mind to the consumer. Distributive Education helps train young men and women to serve the consumer so that he or she may receive the best service from the product.

The Distributive Education students of the 1970-1971 session of Liberty High School took another step toward establishing the DE program as an interesting vocational curriculum. Under the direction of Mr. Rodney Williams, the DECA Club was host to the District XVI Leadership Conference held each fall. With the motto "Service Above Self", the DECA Club aided the business community by taking a survey to determine the flow of money in Bedford.

The big events for the DECA Club each year are the District Conference and the Employer-Employee Banquet. As in past years, Liberty hopes to again dominate the Conference with many winners.

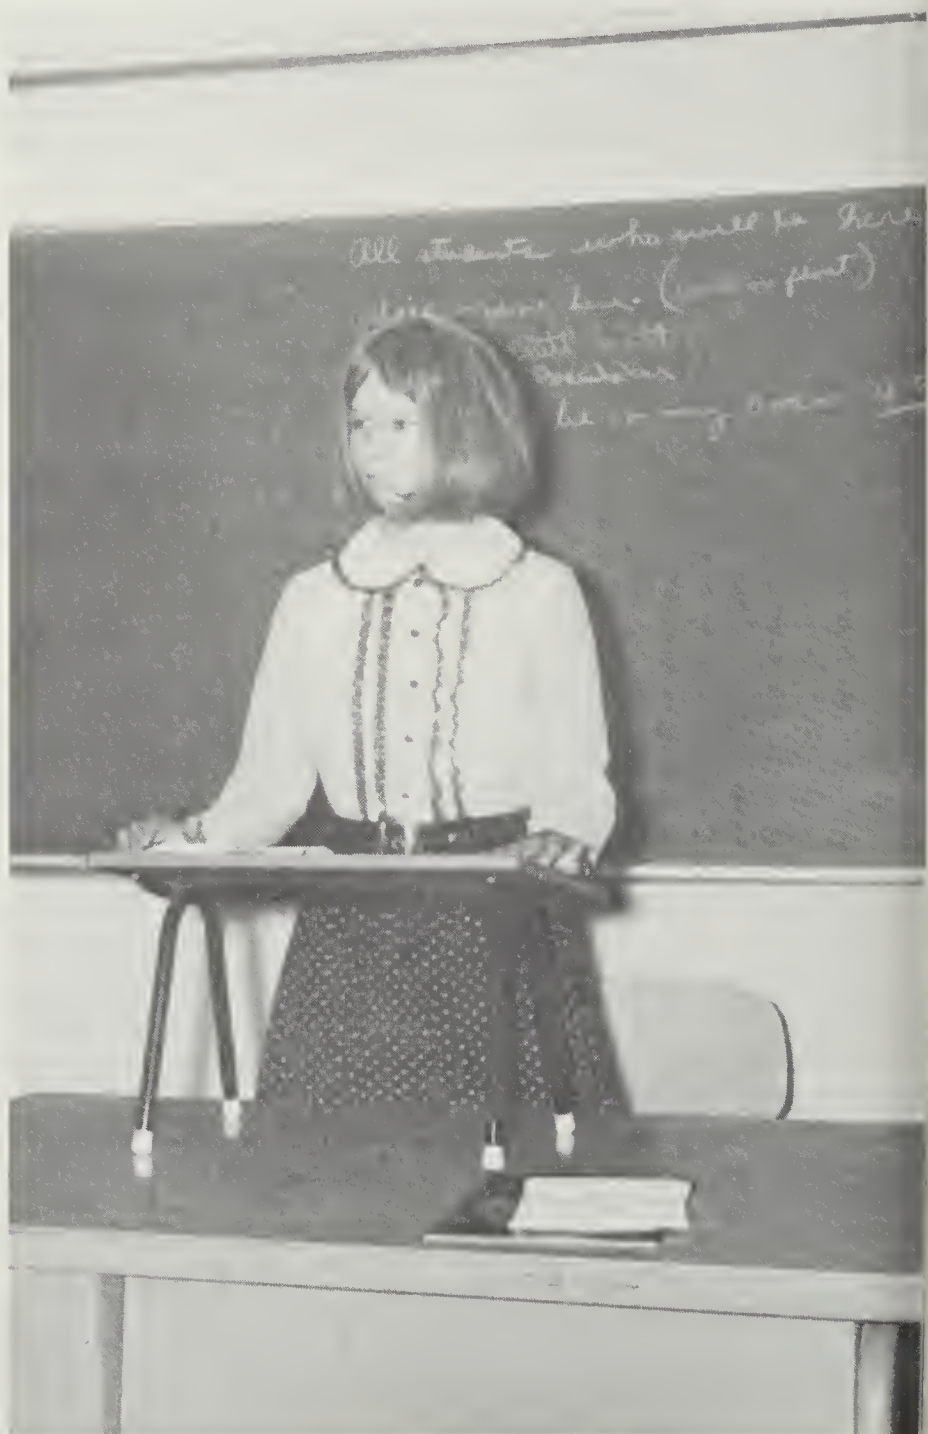

Throughout the school year, its members have tried to serve the community, school, and family by putting "Service Above Self".

Excitement filled the year for the S.O.S. Science Clubs in their many and various projects. The clubs started their activities early in the fall with the Math-Science Banquet. Throughout the year various speakers visited the clubs, including Dr. Randall Flory, Dr. Sandra Boatman, Dr. E. A. Hansbarger, Jr., and Mrs. Margaret Duncan, one of the science teachers at Liberty, who read her research paper on work with salamanders which she will present at the Virginia Junior Academy of Science.

Other highlights included seven entries in the Westinghouse Science Talent Search Contest, fifteen papers in the Tomorrow's Scientists and Engineers Awards Program, entries in the Miss LHS and Ugliest Boy Contests, in which Rodney Hughes won the Most Congenial Award, and the local and regional science fairs.

This year the Conservation Interest Group, under Mr. Fortney, worked with the Sr. Science Club in their projects and furnished green and yellow trash barrels for the school campus. Another first this year was the transformation of the Science Department storage room into a darkroom.

The Vocational Club, a subsidiary of the Vocational Industrial Club of America (VICA), is a new organization just introduced in the Bedford County school system. Composed of students from both Liberty and Staunton River, its classes are held at the Bedford Educational Center. These classes include carpentry, masonry, electronics, foods, health assistance, clothing, agricultural machinery and farm sales, office practice, and drafting. It is especially designed for vocational students and its purpose is to build leadership in the youth of America today.

"To be or not to be" . . . "Spit out that gum or you're not to be in this library for a week." "The library is here for your use. Use it but don't abuse it."

The functions of the Library Club were to stimulate reading of all subjects and to encourage the profession of library science. The club stressed the importance of the library in presenting vivid new ideas and pickling old concepts.

Members of the club helped during study halls, before school, and at lunch with checking out books, cataloging; returning of books, and filing information.

Reading is a daydream pastime for some and "BEEP I got a BEEP book report due today", for others. Facts about the first Model T or how long Babe Ruth practiced before he accidentally hit the first of those little white bodies are in the same shelves as that six foot, blond haired, blue-eyed guy who lives next door to some lucky girl who doesn't appreciate him. Knowledge and the proper use of books are becoming essential today.

Sentinel Staff recounts news and activities for the paper

Sentinel members debate business or pleasure while out of town.

Staff ponders the feature story for the next issue.

Mr. Williams, Sentinel sponsor, delivers his state of the paper announcement.

Mr. Williams and Kathy review the highlights of the workshop held in Richmond.

When you think of news reporters, what comes to mind? Do you picture men and women with little black notebooks and horn-rimmed glasses, always very nosy and just downright obnoxious. Or perhaps is your notion one of Clark Kent going into a phone booth and then jumping out as Superman? If either of these ideas are your conception of newspaper men and women, then you obviously aren't acquainted with the dedicated staff of the Sentinel.

The Sentinel is a reflection of life at Liberty. Actual preparation began last year with the election of this year's staff. Along with Mr. Williams, sponsor, the staff editors attended a workshop in Richmond and brought back ideas to better the paper.

Featured among the six page spreads were athletics, cheerleading, club activities, school happenings, and seniors of the month.

Sentinel members relax during a meeting after paper has gone to press.

Have you lately talked to a student who listened to your arguments on a controversial issue and then skillfully proceeded to tear your ideas and beliefs apart word by word? Most likely, my friends, you have fallen victim to a member of the L.H.S. Debate Team. Under the direction of Mrs. Williams, the debate team learned, by trial and error, how to research a topic, prepare it, and finally, to formally present it using clear and effective English to produce the effect they want.

The team practiced with students in the public speaking class while preparing for the district meet. The members attended a workshop at E. C. Glass on the correct tactics and procedures to use in debating.

Mrs. Williams, you just don't debate things like that.

Pep Club supports team faithfully

How do you tell a Pep Club member? Simple. All you do is spot students with the most poster making talent, undying loyalty, and the biggest mouths. By following this procedure you can't miss. Their boundless enthusiasm could always be counted on to rally all of the athletic teams when times looked bad. According to the bright-eyed Pep Club members, no matter what the season, SPIRIT was "The Name of the Game."

The Pep Club is composed of school spirited students of all grades and they occupy their own section in the stands to help the cheerleaders lead cheers at both football and basketball games.

Enthusiastic is just one of the words known to describe the Art Club. Without them L.H.S. would have no color in the cafeteria or library. Without their creative help many school activities and functions would find it very hard to manage.

The club assisted in making decorations for the Christmas trees, provided by the S.C.A., in the court yards. They also, as another project, sponsored a representative for the "Ugly Boy Contest" and through their talents supported him.

LOVERS

Seniors

"I can't do it, I just can't do it," moans Robert Putt, president of the Senior class.

The Seniors of '71 will always be remembered for their totally unique personalities. This is exemplified in their honors, their willingness to go all out for others, and even in their daily perspective. They communicated their ideas in phrases such as . . . "Hey, we're seniors" . . . "Can we go to lunch, NOW" . . . "There ought to be a legal way to get out of all this work" . . . "Hope my car doesn't catch Claustrophobia" . . . "Got your senior pictures with ya" . . . "And I thought I did bad on my Junior College Boards . . . "He got accepted where?" . . . "She's going with who?" . . . "Only five days, sixteen hours, and twenty-three minutes to the Prom" . . . "Sharp Top will never be the same" . . . And yet these carefree seniors had a serious side, too. Their leadership brought many needed changes to Liberty. Here they gained the knowledge that they will carry as they approach a new phase in their lives.

Freshmen

Is this what the President does all day?

The class of '74 began their four year journey through Liberty. With them began their scholastic and athletic abilities. They worked together forming a united and important force of the student body. Faced with the responsibility of identifying themselves, the freshmen proved that they had become a vital part of Liberty.

Mary Jane Hughes, Vice-President, waits for a friend after class.

Robin,

Saying I've had fun with you this year would really be an understatement! I really can't express how much I have enjoyed knowing you and having you as one of my very best friends! Don't forget all our experiences of the 10th grade — Algebra class, all those Caesar translations in Latin, Mrs. Thaxton and Biology (not to mention our bad luck we always seemed to have in lab), Mrs. Scott and her costumes, and last but not least, all those PE and health classes (who could ever forget?!) Best of luck always to great person and friend who I will always think of as a NO. 1.

Virginia

Robin,

Let's don't think of this time of year as a time for parting because ever since the 8th grade we've had just about all the same classes; English, Biology, Latin, Phys. Ed. With this true, we will probably see each other a lot next year as well as when we are seniors and when we are out at the club. Try to work on your science fair this year and make Mrs. Thaxton proud of you. Don't work too hard though. See ya soon.

Kim

Robin,

Lots of luck to a really sweet girl. I've enjoyed cutting up animals and messing up the microscopes with you this year. So be good this summer and I hope to have a class with you next year.

Eugene

Robin,

To me you've been a really great person to know — from last year and this year. You're real smart. Keep it up. Maybe we'll be in the same chemistry class next year!

Della L. Jackson

Best of luck
to a real nice girl! Have a good summer!
Linwood Harris
"73"

Robin,

Always remember Phy. Ed. class and Biology. I've really enjoyed having these classes with you, especially Biology. Best luck in the future.

Sharon

P.S. Have fun this summer.

Robin
Best of luck in school
the rest of high school I hope you succeed in what you do. Have fun
this summer.
Vicky King

Robin,

Is one of the sweetest girls
I know. Remember all the times we had in Algebra. Stay the way you are and you'll go far.

Love,

Frances

Best of luck to a very sweet girl at Liberty. Always remembers the fun we had in Latin class. (Have fun) this summer and I'll see you next year.

Lots of

Love
Lynn Hatcher

Robin, I've enjoyed
being in Alg. & Biology
with you. You're so helpful and friendly. Keep up the good work ~~you~~ you've been doing in science, and good luck.
Jeanette Smith

Robin,
Best of luck to a really nice girl. You have a great personality that will always make you a great friend. Have a nice summer and be good. See ya this summer

Vicky Yates

Best of luck to a really smart girl. Keep up the good science work, you'll really make a name for Liberty
Have fun this summer

Mr. J. and Mrs. J.

our Scott everything

It's a real nice hope to go far in going year, to see you next

Robin, I've enjoyed
being in Alg. & Biology
with you. You're so helpful
and friendly. Keep up the good work ~~you~~ you've been doing in science, and good luck.
Jeanette Smith

To a real nice girl who is going to go far in going
year, to see you next

Barbara Harvey

Dear Jack
to a real great girl in Bridges, ~~and~~ Latin, and Remi in everything. Keep working hard and have lots of fun always.

Charles Reynolds

Dear Robin:
so many things for us to remember like Algebra, VTAS & D.P. Maybe we can both go to VTAS next year - lots of luck,
Carol

Best of luck in the future to a sweet girl.
Always remember those nerve racking hours in Latin of trying to guess
a right answer.

Love,
Yo,
Connie B.

Robin, what is still alive?
Between heart we're the best of luck and Mrs. we're the best of luck
I wish you the future and I'll see you in the future.
Love,
Jeffrey

Robin,
It's been a blast knowing you and being with you this year. You have become a special person to me (a good friend) - talking about being depressed I've been acting like a little kately and I'm sorry. But I think you understand - (I hope) and I promise you we will be running others for their money!
Stick to it
Love,
Robin
Father

So a very great friend. Remember the halls of LHS. Don't forget NOTHING!!
Best of Luck
to Mum

Best of Luck
always to a great gal!
Always remember
Miss Seymour's class.
Have a real nice summer
and Be good!
Love Ya!
Becky

Robin,
Best of everything always to cute and smart girl. I'm sure you'll go far. Have a fun summer and I'll see you next year
Julie, 79

Robin,
Don't forget 1595, all the waking,
and all that chicken!
Have a super summer and I'll see you next year. Becky Bradshaw

I wanted to write on a green page
since I'm green, too
I would like to wish you the very best of luck I hope to see you next year in some of my classes. Bye now your possible com. Bye now
Dinah

Robin,
I'm gonna miss ya when I leave. You are so sweet and always think of other people.
Best wishes and Good luck Always.
Love,
Dianne
#

Robin,
We'll have to see how the teams
progress this summer.
I feel sure Va. will come through again and defeat Tech. But anyway, even though we are opposers on that account, we stick together and that's the way!
Vickie Laughon

Robin,
Best wishes to a wonderfully sweet girl. See you next year.
Have a great summer. God bless you in everything that you do.

Gudy F. '73

Best wishes to a really great friend. Remember 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th periods and all the great times we had struggling to pass.
See you this summer
every (wa!) Sunday.

Lyth, '73
Beth

Robin,
Have a nice summer and Remember the Science Fair!!
Joe Spencer

Robin,
It's been one heck of a year! Kick the pain of Latin (V) but with all the fun of Biology!
We've finally made it though! You've been a great friend we'll never forget it.
Have a great sum
Over,
Lynn Deal

So a nice history friend and good luck in the future and good luck being with you in this year, you're so you're in Biology and competition
Latin
John

John,
Best of luck to a great person who is really doing it.
Keep working on strong.
Have fun this summer.
See you next year.
Love,
Diana, 173

Rachel,
Best of luck
to a really sweet girl. Remember English class and
have fun this summer.
Love,

John,
Best of luck
to a very nice woman who is hope to see this summer and next year
when we're big juniors.
Be good. Love
Brinda
Wadahal

Best of luck
to a real cute girl (you really look good in pony tail) who is intelligent in every single subject. Next year keep up the hard work and you'll get FIRST in the state! See you next year.
Love ya,
Pneonia Owen
